Jewish Senior Life employees receive health care achievement awards

Carol Maskiell and Mary Fazio, employees at Jewish

Maskiell

Senior Life, were honored at the 2016 Rochester Business Health Care Achievement Awards on March 22.

The awards recognize excellence, promote innovation and honor the efforts

Fazio

of people and organizations who have a significant impact on the quality of health care in the Rochester-Finger Lakes region.

Maskiell, director of the adult day health care program, has worked at the home for more than 30 years. She began as a social worker, shifted to admissions, was promoted to director of social work and recreation therapy and finally earned her current position. She was honored in the health care staff category.

Fazio, director of Marian's House and a registered nurse, supports both patients with memory loss and their caregivers. Marian's House, under Fazio's leadership, received 100 percent excellent ratings for "Likelihood to Recommend to Others" as part of Jewish Senior Life's 2015 family experience survey. She was honored in the nurse category.
