Jewish Senior Life to Host LeadingAge™ Traveling Art Exhibit

Rochester, N.Y. – Jewish Senior Life will host the LeadingAge’s 2014 Art Competition and Exhibit, featuring works created by seniors, the disabled, and the people who take care of them from all across the state.

Seventy pieces of art were chosen from over 300 submissions this year, the 23rd year of the Exhibit. The artists are residents of non-profit and public nursing homes and other care organizations, along with staff and volunteers. Twenty-seven residents of the Jewish Home of Rochester received awards for their artistic submissions, eight of which will be included in the traveling art exhibit. The Jewish Home is honoring these winners in a celebration on May 14th from 1:00-4:00pm. The LeadingAge Art Exhibit is free and open to the public at the Jewish Home of Rochester, 2021 Winton Road South, from 10 am to 3 pm, May 7th through May 23rd, 2014.

“The Jewish Home is one of five locations across New York State to display the exhibit. The last time it was a traveling show was in 2010”, says Robert Whiteside, Creative Arts Therapist at the Jewish Home. The 2014 LeadingAge New York Art Exhibit is sponsored by Spring Line Design, East Greenbush, NY.

About Jewish Senior *Life

Jewish Senior Life™ offers a continuum of high-quality aging services — The Summit at Brighton for independent living; Wolk Manor for assisted living; The Lodge at Wolk Manor for assisted living memory care; The Jewish Home of Rochester for long-term, transitional and memory care; and a variety of community programs and services that enable people to age and live safely, either on campus or other place that they call home. Open to people of all faiths and ethnic backgrounds, Jewish Senior Life is guided by the values of honoring family; emphasizing “aging in place;” allowing people to remain in the place of their choice longer; and providing life care, eliminating worries about unforeseen medical expenses throughout the continuum of care. Jewish Senior Life is accredited by CARF–CCAC and is a member of the Senior Health Alliance of Greater Rochester; Leading Age; and Leading Age New York.
